

Press Release: September 30, 2003

On July 20, 2003, a woman's wallet was stolen from a terminal at the San Antonio International Airport. The next day this suspect went to a nearby bank branch and withdrew $10,000 in two separate fraudulent transactions. The suspect was crying and told the bank teller she needed money for her father's funeral after he had suddenly passed away.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5000 for any information which leads to the arrest of the person responsible for these forgeries.
